

Voter ID Registration Process in Nepal

Voter ID Registration in Nepal

The Voter Identification Card is issued by the Election Commission of Nepal to eligible Nepali citizens.

This card allows individuals to vote in elections and serves as an official identity document.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be a Nepali citizen.
- Must be at least 18 years old on the day of voter registration.
- Must hold a valid Nepali Citizenship Certificate.
- Must be registered in the local area where the individual resides.

Required Documents:

1. Original Citizenship Certificate (■■■■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■■■)
2. Passport-size photographs (if required by local office)
3. Filled voter registration form (provided at the registration center)

Registration Steps:

1. Visit your nearest District Election Office or designated Local Registration Center.
2. Submit your Citizenship Certificate for verification.
3. Fill out the Voter Registration Form with your personal details.
4. Provide biometric details (fingerprints and photo capture).
5. Collect your acknowledgment slip.
6. Voter ID Card will be issued after verification by the Election Commission.

Important Notes:

- Registration campaigns are also conducted periodically in local wards.
- Ensure that your personal information matches your citizenship certificate.
- In case of any errors in the voter ID, contact the District Election Office for correction.

For more information, visit your nearest election office or official government communication channels.
